Submission Guidelines

Madang invites contributions from senior and junior scholars researching on any aspect of Korean contextual theology from a wide range of perspectives, including religious studies, philosophy, theology, literature, folklore, art, anthropology, history, sociology, political science, ecology, natural science, philosophy of science, and cultural studies. Articles submitted for consideration should be under 10,000 words in length (including footnotes; bibliographies and appendices are additional) and should not have appeared elsewhere or be under review for publication elsewhere. Madang also welcomes book reviews (up to 1,000 words) and review articles (up to 3,000 words).

All contributions or enquiries should submit their articles through the On-line Submission System. The address of this system is: http://kyobo5.medone.co.kr/html/

Please contact us if you have any questions. Contact information is as follows.
 · Email: madangjournal@gmail.com
 · Tel: (82)2-2610-4399
 · Postal Address: Madang, Institute for the Study of Theology, Sungkonghoe University, 320, Yeondong-ro, Guro-gu Seoul, Korea. #08359

1 Format: Manuscripts should be written in English and submitted in Microsoft Word format (.doc files). The text must be double-spaced with ample margins, with 12 point Times New Roman.
2 Length: Article manuscripts should be under 10,000 words in length, including footnotes. Bibliographies and appendices (as appropriate) are additional. Book reviews should not exceed 1,000 words and review articles 3,000 words. Please contact the Managing Editor before submitting articles or reviews that exceed these limits.

3 Contents: Article manuscripts should include the following: a cover sheet; an abstract (200 words) followed by a list of five key words; main text; bibliography; acknowledgements; biographical note (100 words); appendices (as appropriate); tables with captions (each table on an individual pages); and figure captions (as a list). The cover sheet consists of the title of the article, the author's name, affiliation, status, and contact details (current e-mail, postal address, and telephone number). The first page of the article proper should have the title but not the author's name and affiliations. Authors should notify the Managing Editor as soon as possible should any of the information change.

4 Style: Submissions must use footnotes for citations and additional informations, and provide a list of references in the format recommended in the most recent edition of the Chicago Manual of Style (Chicago: University of Chicago Press). For details, see http://www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools_citationguide.html

5 Pagination: Formatting should be kept to a strict minimum; the manuscript should be numbered using A4 pagination; titles and subtitles should be the same font/size as running text.

6 Tables/Figures: Authors are encouraged to submit tables, figures, maps, and other illustrations along with their manuscripts. However, these should be sent on separate pages. Please do not insert them into the text.

7 Romanization: Submissions will follow the McCune-Reischauer system for Korean, the Hepburn system for Japanese, and the Pinyin system for Chinese.

8 Han'gŭl/Chinese Characters: The use of han'gŭl and Chinese characters within the text is allowed and encouraged.

9 Editing: All submitted articles must arrive in publishable English. Madang will not be responsible for translation or major editing. Once accepted, articles will undergo standard copy editing by the Journal's editing staff. Corrections will be submitted to the authors for final approval.